$35 per student per class * Material included

(Early Bird Special- $5 off each class chosen with full payment 1 month in advance)*

~ Registration required~ 926-2787 (ARTS)

SOAP CARVING

*3 Dimensional carving with Decoy Carver, Bob Rebh. Kids will work safely with large bars of soap- just like many professional carvers started out as kids- and complete a carving of their choosing. Younger students will work safely with wood tools while older kids, depending on skill set, may work with steel tooling instruments to detail embellishments such as feathering. JUNE 10TH & JULY 22ND

PAINTING WITH ACRYLICS

*Accomplished Artist Kaye Lee Brady of Utah, recently of Pantego, will guide students through all the basic steps to complete their painting in just 3 hours in this "follow the leader" acrylics class. JUNE 17TH & JULY 8TH

FAUX STAINED GLASS

*Multi-media artist Laura Hayes Rodriguez of Engelhard is a professional in the art of faux stained glass with a successful business and international audience. Only on close examination can you tell her work is not real stained glass. Working with special acrylics from tubes, students will complete an original design of their choosing. JUNE 24TH ONLY

TIE-DYE and ACRYLIC SPRAY PAINTING

JULY 1ST & AUGUST 12th

Bring your own white cotton T-Shirt (1 provided) or other apparel and have a ball learning to Tie-Dye and Spray your own unique designs. Create as many new wardrobe accessories as you wish- just in time for the new school season.

CLAY MODELING

*Cathy Clayton of Ponzer is a multi-media artist especially renowned for her wood burnings but she is also an accomplished hand builder in clay. Learn how to create a variety of keepsakes using special polymer clays that do not require kiln firing. Just bring your imagination and let it run wild! JULY 15TH & AUG. 5TH

ORGANIC COLLAGE

*Finger painting, selecting stems, leaves, and other organics plus creating cutouts of butterflies, etc. from plastics for attachment with glue are all included in a variety of techniques kids will learn from Laura Hayes Rodriguez in this class July 29th
